

Victorian Audit of Surgical Mortality webinar series

Clinician's professional development applied in clinical practice

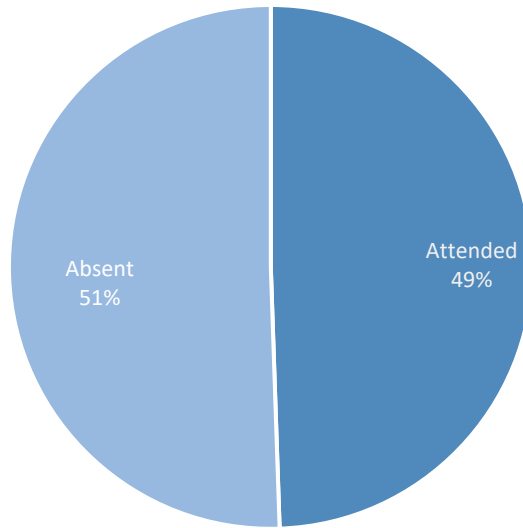

Wednesday 2 December 2020

5.50pm-6.00pm (10 min)	Acknowledge Country, webinar format and introduce speakers for series Mr Patrick Lo, Moderator & Management Committee Member, VASM
6.00pm-6.15pm (15 min)	Meaningful use of the VASM data in professional development A/Prof Philip McCahy, Clinical Director, VASM
6.15pm-6.35pm (20 min) 5.45pm SA time	Expectations of our surgical clinicians participating in RACS RAAS activities Prof Guy Maddern, Clinical Director and Chair Steering Committee, Australian and New Zealand Audit of Surgical Mortality (ANZASM)
6.35pm-6.55pm (20 min)	How does RACMA collaborate with VASM? Prof Erwin Loh, Chief Medical Officer, Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators (RACMA)
7.00pm-7.20pm (20 min)	How did surgical mortality audit data influence my practice? Mr Ian Faragher, General-Colorectal Surgeon
7.20pm-7.50pm (30 mins)	Panel Discussion Speakers are invited for live panel discussion
7.50pm-8.00pm (10 mins)	Session Close Reminder feedback survey and questions: email to VASM

Webinar Attendance - 2 December 2020

92 out of 186 delegate registrations attended the webinar.

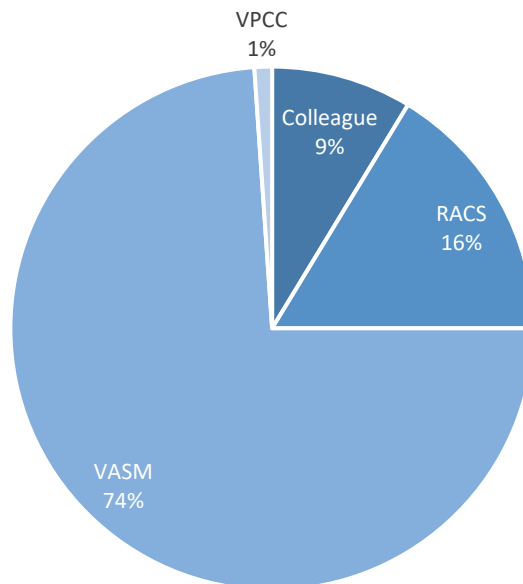

Total registrations.
(n=186)

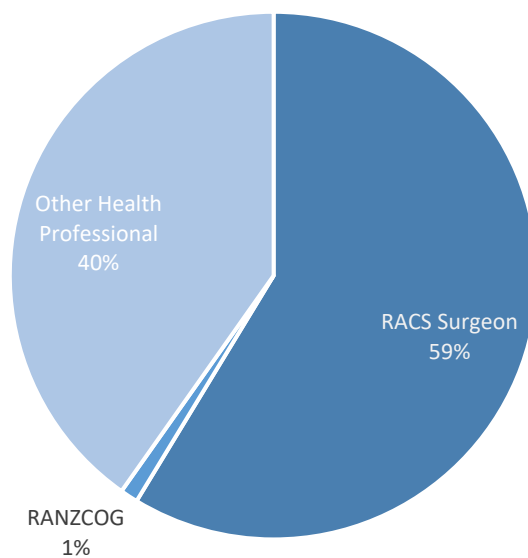

Total attendees by region.
(n=92)

Where attendees heard of the webinar.
(n=92)

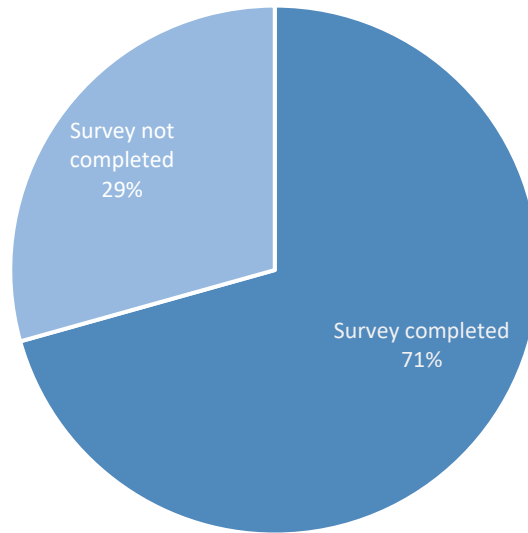

Attendees who were RACS and RANZCOG Fellows.
(n=55/92)

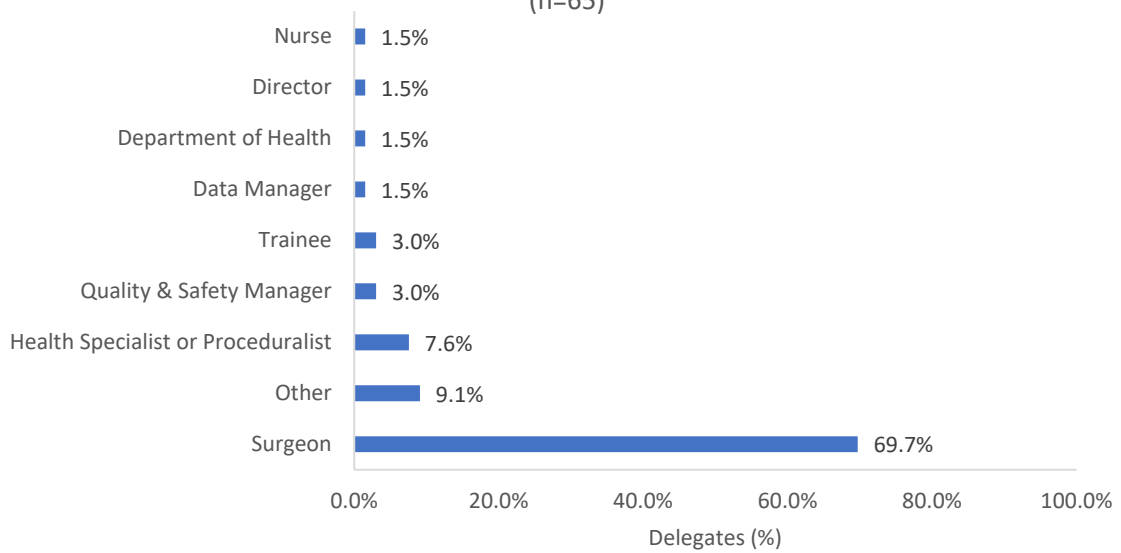

Webinar Survey - 2 December 2020

65 out of 92 attendees completed a survey.

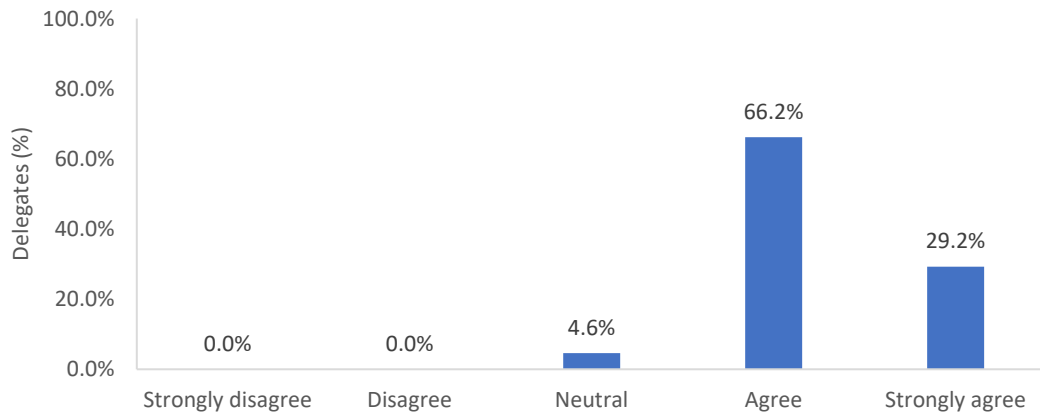

Attendees who completed a survey.
(n=65)

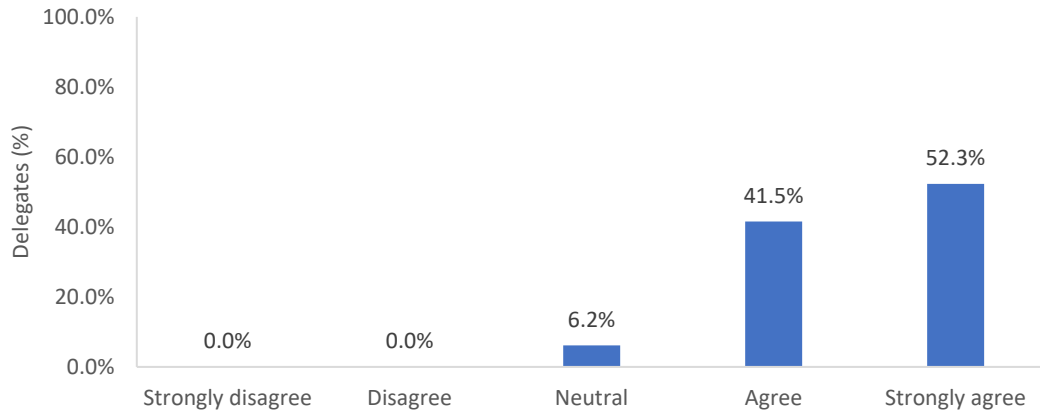

Attendees' professional role
(n=65)

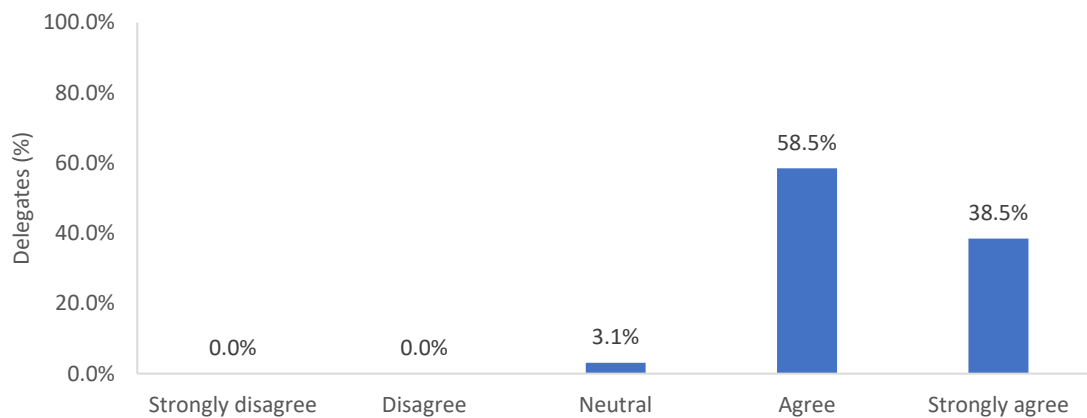

The session outcomes were explained.

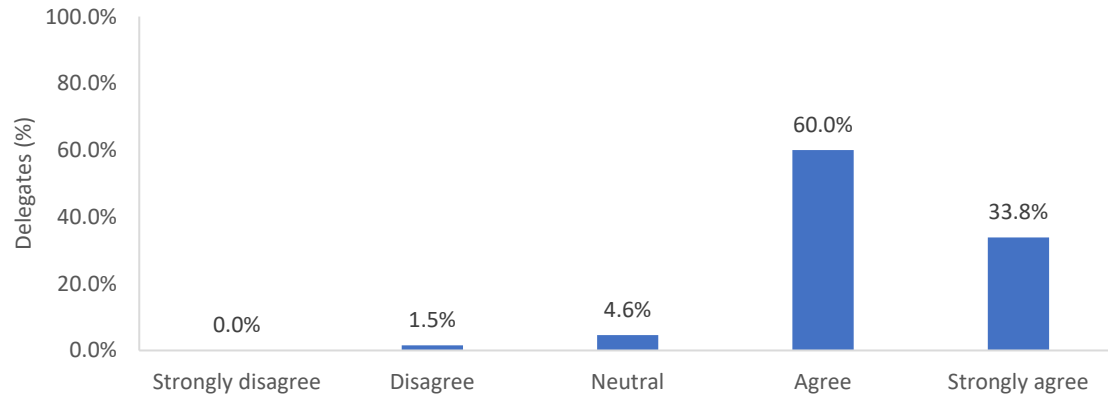

The session format as webinar was suitable.

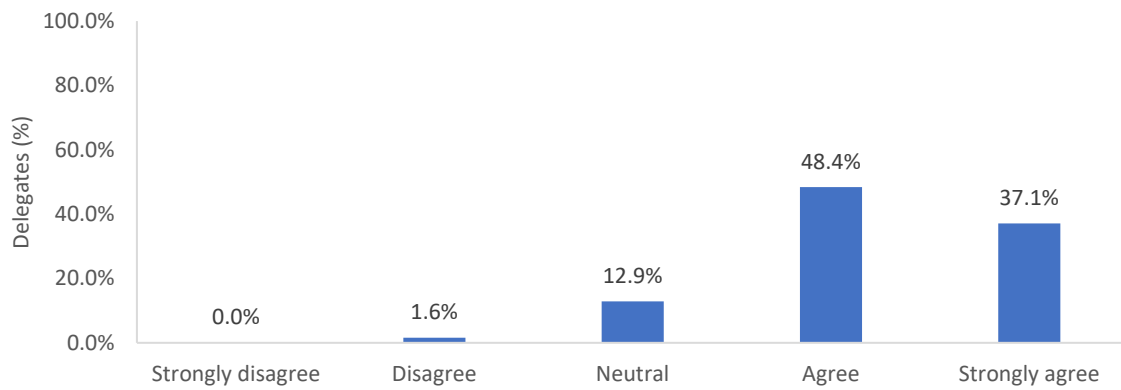

The convener encouraged participation and discussions.

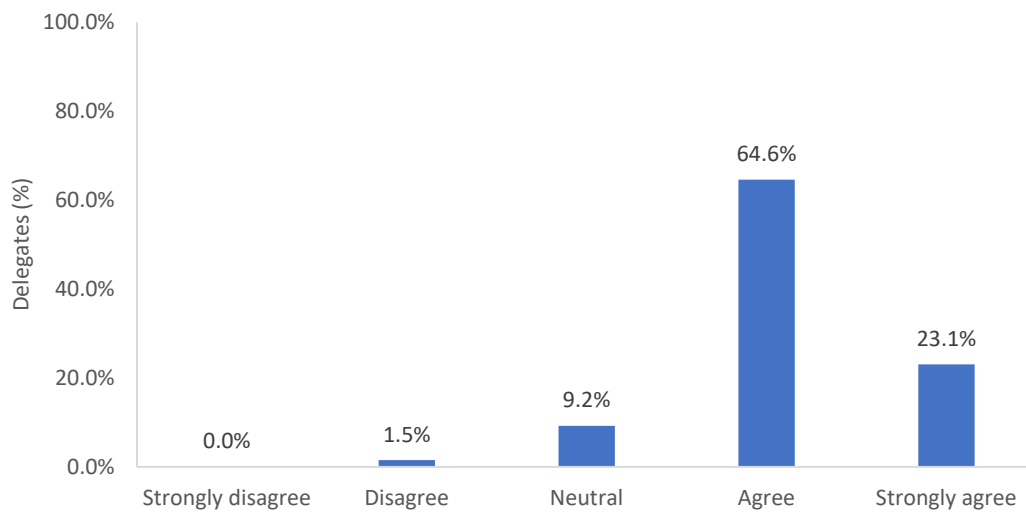

The presentations were well paced and suited to the group.

The panel discussion was well paced and suited to the group.

I have gained valuable knowledge and skills from this program.

Category	Comments
Quality of program format	"The online format makes it much easier for interested parties to attend." "Well moderated."
Value of program theme	"Informative and enjoyable webinar." "Some presentations particularly valuable." "Good relevant speakers and discussion."
Quality of presentations	"Excellent presentations."
Improvements	"Prerecorded presentation would benefit from improved audio equipment but audible." "All other presentations showed the speaker but not the presentations."

