

Melbourne School of Population Health

Ethics Reference No 2056342.1

We are recruiting doctors with a physical or mental illness for a research study into the psychological and emotional impact of medico-legal claims, complaints or disciplinary processes

We are looking for doctors

- With a lived experience of cognitive impairment, mental illness or drug or alcohol difficulties
- Who have experienced a medico-legal claim, complaint or disciplinary process in the last two years.

Study requirements

- Read some information about the study
- Sign a consent form if you wish to participate
- Participate in a fully de-identified interview lasting 90-minutes

Contact:

Dr Owen Bradfield
Medical practitioner, health lawyer &
PhD Candidate
Email: owenmb@student.unimelb.edu.au

Responsible researcher

Associate Professor Marie Bismark
Email: mbismark@unimelb.edu.au

Co-investigator

Associate Professor Matthew Spittal
Email: m.spittal@unimelb.edu.au

Have you experienced a medico-legal claim, complaint or disciplinary process?

What impact did it
have on you?

We would be interested to hear about your experience!

This study has been approved by the University of Melbourne Medicine and Dentistry Human Ethics Sub-Committee. The reference number is 2056342.1. For more information, please contact +61 3 8344 2178.

